

Assam CTC Black Tea – Product Description

Experience the bold character of India's legendary tea heartland with our Assam CTC Black Tea, crafted from the finest leaves grown in the lush Brahmaputra Valley. Known for its deep amber liquor, robust flavor, and invigorating aroma, this tea delivers the perfect balance of strength and smoothness.

Produced using the Crush–Tear–Curl (CTC) method, the leaves brew quickly and yield a rich, full-bodied cup ideal for both plain tea lovers and those who enjoy milk and sweeteners. Its malty notes, brisk finish, and energizing profile make it an excellent choice for a refreshing morning brew or a strong, comforting chai.

Whether you're preparing traditional Indian chai, tea blends, or a daily energizing cup, Assam CTC Black Tea offers unmatched consistency, freshness, and flavor.

Key Features:

- Premium-quality tea sourced from Assam's renowned tea estates
- Strong, malty taste with a deep reddish-brown cup
- Perfect for milk tea, masala chai, or standalone brewing
- Quick-brewing CTC granules for a bold and consistent flavor
- Fresh, aromatic, and naturally energizing

A cup of our Assam CTC Black Tea is more than just tea—it's a taste of India's rich tea heritage in every sip.
